A Newsletter from the Church of the Ascension

Pray for us Ruega por nosotros

Por los enfermos y los que están sufriendo de nuestra comunidad.

For the sick and suffering in our community:
Alfredo Garcia

Por nuestros amados difuntos, que descansen en los amorosos brazos de Jesús.

For our beloved dead, may they rest in the loving arms of Jesus.

A Wounded Church: Finding Peace and Healing with Bishop Cozzens

Date: Monday, Jan. 12

Time: 5:30 p.m.

Location: St. John the Baptist, New Brighton

So many of us have been shaken by the events of Aug. 27 at Annunciation. How can a Church find hope and healing amidst the suffering?

All in the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis are invited to unite in communion (in-person or virtually) for an evening of healing, hope and prayer. Join Bishop Andrew Cozzens as he speaks on A Wounded Church: Finding Peace and Healing. Light refreshments will be available following Mass. If you plan to attend virtually, please register as a virtual attendant and you will receive the livestream link 48 hours before the event.

Go to tinyurl.com/4s6vhy9d to register or scan the code.

Food shelf distribution

Sunday, Jan. 11. Please bring eggs, milk and dairy products to share with those in need.

Distribución de alimentos

Domingo, 11 de enero. Por favor, traiga huevos, leche y productos lácteos para compartir con los necesitados.

ACCW Legislative Day: Our Children-Their Future

8 a.m. - noon, Saturday, Jan. 17

Cathedral of Saint Paul, St. Paul

In concordance with the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops National Catholic Mental Health Campaign, the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women (ACCW) is hosting a powerful speaker event focusing on childhood and adolescent mental health, public education policies and student academic outcomes. Join the ACCW with four experts in their fields who will lend clarity to these issues and offer ways to respond to an ever growing mental health crisis, especially among our youth.
