YOUR HELP IS STILL NEEDED

Your response to the needs of our immigrant families has touched hearts, fed families, and paid the rent, providing residents the means to remain in the security of their homes. "These last few weeks in this city and this parish have arguably been the worst of times," Fr. Dale said in his homily last week. "Yet, I have witnessed the best of us. Our future, the future of the Church, depends on what is emerging here: ordinary people excelling in the ways of love."

While there appears to be fewer immigrant enforcement agents in our cities, enforcement continues, and with it, ongoing fear. It will take time, perhaps a long time, to heal the damage that has been done these past weeks: to rebuild confidence, to find new jobs, regain footing, and to feel safe again. Our need continues. You are an important part of the rebuilding; your continued financial contributions, volunteer time, and prayers will help build our community to be stronger than ever. You are "excelling in the ways of love," and we are so very grateful.

The Theology and Practice of Pilgrimage

Pope Francis declared the theme for the 2025 Jubilee to be "Pilgrims of Hope." Pilgrimage as both a practice and a metaphor has a rich tradition in Christianity. The Church is called to be a pilgrim church, and we are to be a pilgrim people. In exploring what makes pilgrimage such an evocative symbol, we will look at pilgrimage as it is presented in the Bible, practiced in the tradition, and has appeared in the arts. As a religious phenomenon that is not limited to Christianity, we will also look at the place and places of pilgrimage in other faith traditions to further understand the power and pervasiveness of this practice. Whether it is a setting out or turning in, the theology, practice, and symbol of pilgrimage continues to inspire persons of faith around the world.

Thursday, March 5, presentation 6:30 – 9 p.m. (check-in at 6 p.m.), Pax Christi Catholic Church, Eden Prairie, MN. Free event. Registration is required: theologyday.com, 320.363.3560 or theologyday@csbsju.edu.

Unidos Day at the Capitol is Thursday, Feb. 26

On February 26 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., we have an opportunity to meet with elected officials from across Minnesota. We will begin with a training session to prepare for our conversations with legislators. Unidos Catholics will then join members and supporters to lobby for immigrant rights, accountability in health care and climate action.
