Ascension Catholic School featured on Ch. 4

For the third straight year, Ascension Catholic School created a "Veterans' Wall." Scholars and staff brought in photos of relatives who are veterans. Scholars also wrote notes to thank those who have served our country, and those cards are delivered to the VA Hospital. It's all part of Ascension's Positivity Project. This month, the focus is on bravery.

Ch. 4 ran a feature story about this. You can view the story here.
